Windsor, October 15.

THE following Addreſs from the County of Flint, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Conway, Kt. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, aſſembled together at the great Seſſions held at Mould for the ſaid County, do, with the utmoſt Gratitude, acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Goodneſs, in endeavouring to procure, after ſo long and expenſive a War, a ſafe and honourable Peace: Which, that Your Majeſty may effect, and bring it to an happy Concluſion; and that You may live long to enjoy the Bleſſings of it, are the ſincere Wiſhes, and hearty Prayers of, Madam, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the City and County of Londonderry, aſſembled at a general Aſſizes held for the ſaid City and County, the ninth Day of Auguſt, 1712.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE are extreamly glad of all Opportunities of aſſuring Your Majeſty of our ſincere Loyalty, and Affection to the beſt of Queens. As fatal Neceſſity once forc'd us to endure the utmoſt Calamities of War, in defence of our Religion and Conſtitution, ſo we are very ſenſible what Bleſſings all Your Subjects owe to Your Majeſty, the Succeſſes of whoſe glorious Reign ſhall be Crown'd with a laſting and honourable Peace: Such a Peace as will hereafter, put it out of the Power of the moſt ambitious Prince, to attempt the Univerſal Monarchy of Europe, promote the Good of the Church by Law Eſtabliſhed, advance the Trade of Your Kingdoms, ſecure the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hannover, as ſettled by Act of Parliament, and make it vain for any Popiſh Pretender (however aſſiſted by any of Your Majeſty's Foreign or Domeſtick Enemies) to Uſurp any of Your Titles, or ever attempt to Invade any part of Your Dominions. Theſe we well know, and gratefully acknowledge, are the Bleſſings Your Majeſty always had at Your Royal Heart for Your People, and which we hope God Almighty will aſſiſt Your Majeſty to obtain, in ſpight of all Oppoſition whatſoever. We beg leave to conclude, by renewing, in the moſt Solemn Manner, all Aſſurances of our firm Loyalty to, and profound Reſpect for Your Majeſty, whom we will ever ſtedfaſtly adhere to, and ſtand by with our Lives and Fortunes.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, October 7. N. S. On Monday laſt Monſignor Mattei, the Pope's Nuntio, had a publick Audience in the College, where he notified his being made Archbiſhop of Fermo, and that he is to be ſucceeded here by Monſignor Aldobrandini, who is at preſent Nuntio at Naples. On Tueſday laſt Signor Venier, one of the Council of Ten, coming out of the Council before the others, waited in the Broglio for Signor Gabrieli, another Member of that Tribunal, againſt whom he had an old Quarrel, and whoſe Office of Inquiſitor of State was that Day expired. Venier ſtruck Gabrieli over the Face, then drew a Stiletto, which it is Death to carry in the great Council, and would probably have killed him, if ſeveral Gentlemen had not interpoſed. Upon this Accident the Council of Ten aſſembled two Days after, where they reſolved, that the Inſult committed by Signor Venier was not done to Signor Gabrieli as a private Perſon, but as Inquiſitor of State. Whereupon a Proclamation was publickly read againſt him, and he was ordered to ſurrender himſelf in twenty four Hours. It is reported, that he hath withdrawn himſelf to day out of the Dominions of this State, and on Monday next the Council of Ten will publiſh a Sentence by which he will be condemn'd to Death, deprived of his Nobility, his Eſtate confiſcated, a Stone of Infamy erected, and Ten thouſand Ducats promiſed as a Reward to any Perſon that apprehends him.

Copenhagen, October 8. N. S. The Daniſh Fleet is returning home, having been ſome Days ago in a very violent Storm. We have no Account yet of their having ſuffered by it, and two Ships that were ſeparated from the reſt are already come into this Harbour. It is ſaid, the Swediſh Fleet is gone into Carlſcroon. The Court of Holſtein-Gottorp being informed that the Daniſh Forces are to be quarter'd this Winter in the Bailiwicks belonging to that Duke, his Secretary here has ſpoke about it to the King's Miniſters, who diſown there is any ſuch Deſign, but at the ſame time demand ſufficient Security from the Court of Gottorp, that the Swediſh Parties ſhall make no more Excurſions into Holſtein. The Miniſters of Gottorp have returned anſwer, that Count Welling has aſſured the Adminiſtrator no more ſuch Excurſions ſhall be made, which is all the Security they can poſſibly give. The Danes inſiſt this is not ſufficient, and 'tis ſuppoſed they may make that a pretence to put their Troops into Quarters in the Duke's Territories.

Berlin, October 15. N. S. The Day after the Czar arrived here, he went out early in the Morning to ſee the Arſenal, and being returned to his Houſe, he received a Viſit from the King. In the Evening he was entertained with all his Court by his Majeſty at Supper; after which he took his leave of the King, and ſet out the next Day at ſeven of the Clock for Carlsbad. The Cannon was fired thrice round the Town at his Departure, which he declined at his arrival. During his ſtay here, he was attended by the Field-Marſhal and Chamberlan Slippenbach, and he ſeemed ſo well ſatisfied with his Reception, that he has reſolved to paſs by this Place again in his return from Carlsbad, where he intends to ſtay but three Weeks.

Braſſels, Octob. 22. N. S. Letters from Liſle of the 14th bring an Account, that the Prince of Holſteinbeck was returned thither with a Detachment which had march'd to ſuſtain the Party that ſurpriz'd Fort Knock: He has reinforc'd the Garriſon of that Place, which now conſiſts of 400 Men: He has likewiſe ſent in thirty Waggons laden with Meal for their Subſiſtance: Beſides which, the adjacent Villages have been Summon'd to bring in Pro-
